Editorial Review

Review

InfoDad blog, 1/29/15

“Elliott deserves credit for tackling so many issues involved in post-breakup life and for handling them in a plainspoken way...Her willingness to discuss everything from specific sexual issues to the right time to introduce children to a new partner is admirable. On balance, her statement that ‘this is a different kind of dating book’ is accurate, and Getting Back Out There is a useful counterbalance to more-superficial books about dating and mating.”

Publishers Weekly*, 12/1/14

“Elliott offers readers humble and perceptive advice for recovering from heartbreak and reentering the dating world...Elliott's wisdom—well reasoned, unassuming, and based on experience—is not to be missed.”

Library Journal*, December 2014

“Extremely encouraging for those who wish to build a healthy relationship and get on with life.”

Hudson Valley News*, 2/20/15

“The most valuable part of the book...is the collection of love stories at the end.”

Bookviews Blog, March 2015

“[Elliott] does not shy from the fact that exes, children, and boyfriends with kids are components of the modern dating scene.”
