A Species in Denial By Jeremy Griffith

A SPECIES IN DENIAL is the revolutionary bestseller by Australian biologist Jeremy Griffith. In it the author presents a series of essays addressing the crux issue before us as a species of the human condition, our capacity for good and evil, describing how humans have coped with the dilemma of the human condition by living in denial of it. Griffith then explains the biological reason for the human condition, thus ending the need for the denial and maturing humanity to psychological freedom from its historic insecure human-condition-afflicted state. With a foreword by Templeton Prize winning biologist Charles Birch, this book provides a deeply insightful examination of science, religion, politics, men and women, psychiatry and mythology.

Editorial Review

Review

'Like to improve your understanding of the human condition? Ever wondered about our contradictory capacity for good and evil? Jeremy Griffith believes he has the answer to the riddle of humanity. To why humanity's progress is stalled in a state of unknowing...A Species In Denial, with a foreword by Charles Birch, traverses wide ground indeed. From deciphering Plato's cave allegory, to human denial, to bringing peace to the war between the sexes, to the denial-free history of the human race and the demystification of religion.' -- John McConnell, The Sydney Institute Quarterly

'Jeremy Griffith is an Australian biologist but his range of interests and his store of knowledge seem almost infinite... The chapter called Resignation is brilliant in its insight into human nature and what we call the idealism of the young... It's worth reading the book for this essay alone but, of course, there's so much more. Those who need brain food will find it here. It can't be said of many books that the world looks different after you've read them. It can be said of this book.' -- Antonia Hilderbrand, Toowoomba Chronicle

'A book that confronts the way we think about life...People like [Griffith] used to be drummed out of town by the vicar...Griffith gives the serious reader plenty to ponder...There is never any doubt of the courage of [Griffith's] stance in writing this book because of his commitment to his fellow man and the future of the planet.' -- Pat White, Wairarapa News, New Zealand'

'10/10. Prepare to be confronted...Prepare to be enlightened.' -- Wendy O'Hanlon, Noosa Times'There is no doubt that Jeremy is talking about the big stuff.' -- Katie Wilkie, The Land's 'Friday Magazine'
