Editorial Review

About the Author

Author Justin Strecker combines classroom knowledge with real life experience to produce reliable and sound information that offers help to his readers. With a master's degree in counseling and as a church planting pastor, he continues to grow in experience and knowledge in understanding the source of people's pain. He is committed to helping people realize their dreams of living in freedom. Justin is also a business executive who has run a multi-million dollar business for the past 5 years. Justin is married to his wife Jordan and together they have 5 children. Justin and Jordan have also founded Genesis Ranch in Townsend TN where the author's counseling work and the desire to see people start fresh will be implemented. Genesis Ranch is a bed and breakfast where guests will come to restart their lives while connecting with God in His creation on 104 acres in the Smoky Mountains. The author believes that God still speaks to His people and he wants to help them hear their Creator's voice.
