LITTLE BIGHORN APPENDICES. By Brigadier General George A. Forsyth, General Nelson A.Miles, Colonel Edward S.Godfrey

The book contains not only the story of the Custer massacre, but also a collection of historical printed material, for the student, who desires to go deeper into the subject of the Little Bighorn massacre, thus making it a valuable reference work. It portrays in a vivid manner the causes that lead to these battles and the conspiracies that followed like the "Mary Adams affidavit". The Little Bighorn disaster will remain always in the minds of the American people as one of the greatest horrors of the 19th Century.

For generations the awful tragedy of the Custer massacre, will be remembered with feelings of sorrow. This disaster was a veritable carnival of death. Caught like rats in a trap, without a chance of escape, these hapless victims were abandoned on the battlefield, shot, scalped and then desecrated by the angry tribe after their deaths. This is their story.
